CONDITIONS FOR NURSERIES ARTIFICIALLY PROPAGATING ENCEPHARLATOS SPECIES INCLUDED IN APPENDIX I TO THE CONVENTION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE IN ENDANGERED SPECIES OF WILD FAUNA AND FLORA (CITES)

1. This certificate:
   a) Shall not be transferable and will only be valid for the individual to which it was issued;
   b) Shall be deemed invalid until such time that the holder/Recipient of the certificate has signed it;
   c) Shall be subject to any other law or provision as this certificate does not replace or repeal any other necessary provincial and national legislations;
   d) Shall only be valid in the province in which it was issued;

2. All specimens of the species listed in this certificate must be kept at the address as indicated in this certificate.

3. Only a person authorized thereto by the Premier or Minister may make any alteration on the permit.

4. This certificate is subject to any additional conditions as may be determined by the competent issuing authority.

5. Any unauthorized alteration to this certificate shall render it invalid.

6. The holder of this certificate must keep a register with the details of all Encephalartos species which must include details of all the specimens sold/donated by the facility and the documentation relating to the sale/donation.

7. The holder of this certificate must report any additional or removed plants which occurred after the issuing of this certificate, to the relevant Management Authority.

8. Failure to comply with any of these conditions will render this certificate invalid, and the certificate holder shall be guilty of an offence in terms of the relevant national and provincial legislations and will result in cancellation of this certificate.

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------
Signature of the issuing Authority                                      Signature of the certificate holder

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------
Full name                                                  Full name

-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------
Date                                                  Date